January 2018

Dear Fellow Quiz enthusiasts,

Happy New Year to you all and a big thank you for taking part in my annual quiz to raise much needed funds for the British Schools Museum. The final money count for this year was £364.

First off, I must apologise for a couple of typos that I made on the questions and clue count although it didn't seem to put anyone off and I think I may have made this year's quiz a touch too easy! So I've had to be extremely picky in marking the entries, especially on question number 74. C+ 1 spotted dogs – the actual book title by Dodie Smith was 'THE Hundred and One

Dalmatians' (see book cover) and not One hundred OR 101 or even A. Half a point deducted for that. Apologies to the large number of you who didn't get the title exactly right. (It was also Peppa Pig and not Pepper)

There were 9 people who got the whole quiz 100% correct including Linda Burkett, Roger Smith, Carola Scupham, Jill Butler, John Francis, Ann Agar, Eunice Vale and Mrs S Taylor but the overall winner picked "out of the hat" was Cath Thomson. Congratulations.

So many people have told me how much they enjoy the quiz each year and that makes all the challenging work worthwhile. Thank you, everyone, once again for contributing to this annual fundraiser for The British Schools Museum. I am pleased that you enjoy taking part and hope to hear from you all again next year.

Thank you for your support.

Please find enclosed/attached a copy of the answers.
